MANY CITIES OF CANADA IN STRIKE'S GRIP

Rapid Growth of Industrial Unrest in Various Sections Reported

Situation Threatens to Become Worse as Thousands of Work

OTTAWA, Ont., — Industrial unrest continued in many parts of Canada Wednesday, with many strikes in progress and others threatened. According to reports received here, the situation is as follows:

Winnipeg—general strike situation unrelieved.

Toronto—forty-five thousand men threaten to strike Friday unless eight-hour day granted.

Edmonton—strikes are said to have practically tied up the city.

Calgary—fifteen hundred men reported out.

Lethbridge—mine workers struck.

Brandon—strikers claim to have paralyzed the city.

Ottawa—small strike of machinists, partially settled.

Montreal—labor men talking about a vote on a general strike.

Regina, Saskatoon, Moose Jaw—there is much general strike talk.

BLAME PLACED

G. D. Robertson, minister of labor, blames the "one big union" idea for the trouble and declares a few radicals are the leaders, seeking to overthrow constituted authority.

Questioned in commons Tuesday night, Premier Borden said law and order must be maintained at all costs, that postal employees and other civil service employees on strike in Winnipeg and elsewhere, could not be permitted to dislocate the public service and must resume work or be dismissed. Collective bargaining, he said, which was the basis of the Winnipeg trouble, could not be unreservedly accepted until its full meaning had been defined. The government's permanent policy, he stated, depends on the result of the committee probing relations between labor and employer.

WINNIPEG SITUATION

In Winnipeg, according to information available here, the strikers are holding out for collective bargaining. A citizens' committee is maintaining order, but is denounced by strikers as a union of capitalists, taking postal, government, telephone and civic employees have been discharged, and the striking firemen replaced by permanent employees, who must sign an agreement not to engage in sympathetic strikes or cease work without 30 days' notice after arbitration. Mail deliveries in Winnipeg are being resumed. The council planned to decide Wednesday whether to attempt to run street cars. The mayor promised adequate protection, saying he was ready to invoke martial law if necessary.

Advices from Toronto were that the proposed strike of 45,000 had been postponed until Friday. A deputy meantime was to urge acceptance of a compulsory eight-hour day. It was stated in commons Tuesday night that the government lacks authority to enforce such a rule.

In addition to the strikes in cities, the western railway mail clerks are reported to have voted to quit work.

There have been no serious outbreaks and so far there is not much cooperation between strikers in different cities, although Montreal unions voted financial aid to Winnipeg strikers.

Situation Critical

WINNIPEG, Man.—A complete telegraphic and mail tie-up is the first step contemplated in the sympathetic strike, labor leaders said Wednesday, calculated to sweep all western Canada.

Christopher Severeid, Victoria, B. C. president of the Amalgamated Sheet Workers, between Port Arthur and Vancouver, notified all members of his organization to quit work by noon Wednesday.

MAY ASK U. S. RAIL MEN TO BACK CANADIAN STRIKE

COLUMBUS—Canadian delegates may appeal to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen to take a hand in the industrial troubles of the dominion, before the close of the convention here.

If the organization is unwilling to take an active part in boosting the movement for an eight-hour day, these northern delegates will make an effort to secure the moral support of the Brotherhood thru resolutions of recommendation.

Intervention of the Brotherhood was considered unlikely as President Lee took a stand against such action in the early sessions of the convention.

COMMANDER READ'S WIFE NEVER LOST FAITH IN HER HUSBAND'S UNDERTAKING

Mrs. Albert C. Read and baby. Mrs. Read, wife of the commander of the N.C.-4, never thought for a minute he would fail in his dash across the Atlantic. When he reached the Azores she was confident victory was his, and when the news of his landing at Lisbon reached her yesterday she was one of the happiest women in America.

LURED TO TRAP, MEN MURDERED

Atrocities of Japanese and Koreans Are Brought to Light—Villagers Are Slaughtered and Bodies Burned

NEW YORK.—Atrocities committed in Korea by Japanese soldiers during the rebellion, are described in the Japanese Advertiser of Tokio, received here Wednesday. The article also tells of Korean atrocities. The governor-general of Korea, according to the newspaper, has promised a delegation of missionaries there would be no repetition of the outrages.

"The missionaries who investigated, visited several villages which had been burned by Japanese gendarmes and soldiers," the article said. "The villagers were driven out of their homes. All they owned was destroyed."

"The villagers, infants and old men and women have been hiding in the hills, with no food or covering for their bodies at night."

There were said to be many cases of blood poisoning among the wounded.

SUMMONED TO CHURCH

In one village, the article said, "gendarmes and soldiers, marching into this village, had summoned the men to attend a meeting in the church where they were told certain orders were to be read to them. They gathered in the building, some 50 or more. As soon as the men had all been gathered, the soldiers opened fire on them thru the open windows. Volleys after volleys were poured into the gathering, until the floor was covered with moaning heaps of dead and wounded men. To complete their work, the surviving women of the village told the missionaries, the soldiers entered the building and bayoneted all the men whom the bullets had not killed, while two women who had approached the building to learn the fate of their husbands were likewise bayoneted, and their bodies thrown among those of the men."

BODIES BURNED

"Then kerosene was poured on the bodies and the building was consumed by fire."

Regarding Korean atrocities in Kaik-Do, the newspaper said:

"The rioters killed the Japanese police officers, destroyed police stations and set fire to the Japanese grammar schools, their actions being unsurpassed anywhere. At one of the police stations, the remains of one of the police officers, says the semi-official report, were found with the ears and nose cut off, the body having been subjected to the utmost brutality."

PLAN WOOSTER TRIP

VAN WERT—County Agent Andrew is planning to take a large delegation of Van Wert county farmers to Wooster for the June experiment trials being planned by the state department of agriculture.

GRAND JURY TO START BRIBE PROBE ON JUNE 4

COLUMBUS—Grand jury investigation into alleged bribery charges in the Ohio legislature will begin Wednesday, June 4, according to an announcement Wednesday by Prosecuting Attorney Schlesinger.

Attorney General Price, who will assist the prosecutor in the investigation, has stated that date would be agreeable to him.

WILL REFUSE SURRENDER OF THE KAISER

Foe's Counter Proposals Include Rejection of Demand for Ex-Emperor

Fiume and Boundary Matters Affecting Italy Omitted from Austrian Pact

BERLIN — (Tuesday) — The German counter-proposals to the peace treaty, as made here Tuesday, refuse to surrender the kaiser, and demands immediate admission of Germany to the league of nations with a mandatory over her former colonies.

The counter proposals agree to the limitation of the German army of 100,000 men, an offer to disarm the large German naval vessels tho insisting on retaining some commercial vessels.

They further assert that no changes in German territorial limits should be made without plebiscites in the territories affected. Such plebiscites are asked especially in Upper Silesia, East Prussia, West Prussia, Memel and Danzig.

The Germans agree that Danzig shall be a free port with the river Vistula (on which Danzig is situated) internationalized.

It is asked that the entente withdraw from occupied territory within four months.

WILL REIMBURSE

Willingness to reimburse especially France and Belgium for damages sustained during the war, is expressed.

The counter-proposals state that Germany is willing to pay 20,000,000,000 marks (approximately $5,000,000,000) by 1925, and an annual sum thereafter, but that the total they will pay must not exceed 100,000,000,000 marks (approximately $25,000,000,000).

With regard to the kaiser and others held responsible by the allies, the counter-proposals suggest reciprocal trials of persons accused on both sides.

A mutual reparations commission with a neutral president, is proposed to decide specific cases and disputes.

The Germans ask the right to resume overseas trade, to possess a merchant marine, and that Germany be permitted to tax German fortunes which have been removed to other lands.

Austrian Treaty

PARIS—The question of Fiume and other boundary matters affecting Italy, will not be included in the peace treaty which will be handled by the Austrian delegates at St. Germain Friday, it was learned Wednesday.

It was also learned the treaty will not contain detailed provisions regarding reparations, owing to the difficulty of apportioning Austria's debt among the nations which formerly made up the dual monarchy.

The Fiume situation, which recently nearly caused a split in the peace conference, will be reserved for future settlement by the "big four." By this means, the allies will be enabled to go ahead and come to terms with Austria without the danger of Italy raising a last-minute objection, it is pointed out.

REPARATIONS QUESTION

Difficulties have been experienced, according to available information, in allotting the Austrian reparations among the new nationalities which have gained recognition since the armistice. Instead of Germany and Austria as they now exist, paying the entire bill, Poland, Czechoslovakia and other new countries will have to pay a portion, because their peoples were part of the enemy nations when the debt was rolled up. Financial experts found this system necessary in order to maintain the world's equilibrium during the breaking up of central Europe. Military terms will not be included in the treaty as at present drawn.

GERMAN PROPOSALS

While interest is centered in the Austrian treaty, the presentation of the German counter-proposals is eagerly awaited. These are nearly ready to be handed over. The counter-proposals, as stated in an exclusive United Press dispatch from Berlin, ask that Germany be admitted to the league of nations as a prime requisite of peace.

Admiral Kolchak's anti-Bolshevik government at Omsk will not be recognized by the United States until that country learns more about him. It was stated authoritatively. This is the American attitude no matter what Britain and France decide to do. Reports have been received that Kolchak's army is retreating along the entire front.

KOLCHAK GAINS ALLIED FAVOR; OMSK GOVERNMENT ABOUT TO BE RECOGNIZED

Admiral Kolchak. It is reported from Paris that the council of four has decided unanimously to recognize the Omsk government of Admiral Kolchak, the anti-Bolshevik leader, in Russia. The government led by Kolchak includes representatives of all shades of Russian's progressive public opinion and has accomplished a great deal in the regeneration of the industrial, commercial, financial, cultural and political life of Siberia.

TWO MEN ARE SHOT IN RIOTS AT YALE COLLEGE

Battle Between Students and Townspeople Lasts for Six Hours

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—Renewed outbreaks of hostilities between Yale students and townspeople were feared Wednesday. Several persons were beaten and two men were shot Tuesday night when a crowd attacked students on the edge of Yale campus.

The fighting continued at intervals for six hours. Stones were hurled at the college buildings, windows smashed, and Ernest Fisco and Tony Palbeth received bullet wounds. The shots were alleged to have come from the window of a college dormitory.

Mayor Fitzgerald Wednesday characterized the rioters as "irresponsible youngsters." Police estimated that 5,000 were in the crowds that menaced Yale campus. Few men in uniform were among them. Hundreds of students guarded the gates and once made a sally, but without meeting the enemy.

The injured were mostly students who were found alone in the streets near the college. Attacks which started against several dormitories failed to gain against the students, including athletes who opposed them.

It was reported the ill-feeling was the result of Yale students jeering at soldiers during a recent parade. There was no confirmation of the story that any such episode occurred but it was widely circulated.

USE MOTORISTS OF U. S. TO RECRUIT AIR SERVICE

WASHINGTON—Motorists of the United States are to be enlisted to aid recruiting for the air service of the army. To this end 330 automobile clubs of the country are to be requested by Charles J. Glidden donor of the Glidden trophy for touring, who has interested himself in the campaign for 15,000 aviation recruits, to appoint a rallying committee of ten men for each club. These rallying clubs will make it their business to send in names of at least five men who might be interested in enlisting in the air service.

JEWISH MASSACRE REPORTS NAILED LIES BY U. S. POLES

WASHINGTON—Reports of pogroms in Poland are "abominable lies" and all Zionist demonstrations against Poland and the Poles will be met with Polish counter demonstrations, according to resolutions passed by the convention of American Poles at Racine, Wis., and addressed to the state department and to the senate.

AIRMEN PLAN FLIGHT FROM LISBON TODAY

American Flying Boat May Make Journey to Plymouth Tonight

Great Reception is Given Aviators by the Portuguese People

LISBON — The Americans who flew across the Atlantic, were ready Wednesday for the "hop off" of more than 100 miles from Lisbon to Plymouth, England. This jump will complete their historic air voyage which started from Rockaway Beach, N. Y.

Lieutenant Commander A. C. Read, first man successfully to navigate the air lanes and the way across the sea, was up and about early Wednesday morning, looking over prospect of getting away for England at once. Much depends on the condition of the weather and the motors.

VOIS, GREETING

The N.C.-4 swept over Lisbon shortly after 4 o'clock Tuesday evening (New York time) after a nearly perfect trip from Ponta Delgada, Azores. It settled gracefully in the river beside the American warship Rochefort. The event, marking an epoch in the annals of aviation, was hailed by a bedlam of whistles and bells from the city and the ships in the harbor. Thousands of people were on the roadsides and in the squares.

Read, first man successfully to navigate the air lanes and the way across the sea, was up and about early Wednesday morning, looking over prospect of getting away for England at once. Much depends on the condition of the weather and the motors.

Planes darted out from the harbor, and the excited Portuguese people greeted the N.C.-4 as it landed in the water after its 800-mile trip.

The flight from the Azores was without incident, according to reports from the crew.

Soon after their arrival, Read and his crew received official congratulations from Portuguese officials. Wireless congratulations were also received from Admiral Jackson and Captain Wetmore of the Azores and from the United States and elsewhere.

ADMIRAL HOPES TO GO

Read was handed two messages when he reached here, to be delivered in Plymouth. One was addressed to Queen Mary and was from Rodman Wrenham, who organized the first projected trans-Atlantic flight.

The first thing the aviators heard when their motors stopped was the music of the "Star Spangled Banner" floating over the water from the U. S. S. Rochester. They saluted.

Replying to the congratulations of the Portuguese minister, the American minister declared his belief the flight would improve relations between Portugal and the United States. He thanked the aviators who won for the United States the honor of having its flag carried first across the sea thru the air.

The Portuguese government awarded to Read and to Commander Towers and Lieutenant Comander Bellinger of the N.C.-3 and the N.C.-1 respectively, the order of Commander of Torre-pada and each member of their crews was made a chevalier of the same order. Admiral Plunkett, and other navy officials were decorated with the order of Aviz.

Tuesday night there was a brilliant reception aboard the Rochester.

Wednesday was a holiday in honor of the Americans.

Read was very modest about his achievement.

"The engines functioned perfectly all the way from America to Portugal," he said.

PLAN LARGEST ELECTRIC PLANT IN THE WORLD

SPRINGFIELD — The Robbins-Meyers Electric company, which has purchased the James Leffel company's plant and five adjoining acres, plans eventually to build the largest exclusive electric fan and motor factory in the world, according to reliable information here Wednesday. It will be the largest factory under one roof, housing from seven to nine thousand employees.

The James Leffel company has taken over the Columbia Planter company and eight adjoining acres, planning to operate the largest water wheel manufacturing plant in the world.

PAYS RADICALS' FINES

CLEVELAND.—C. E. Ruthenberg, socialist party leader, Wednesday sent a check for $942.75 to Welfare Director Beman, to pay the fines and costs of 34 radicals now in the workhouse under sentence of 30 days and $25 and costs.

FREE TICKETS TO RURAL VISITORS

Lima Merchants Plan to Make Suburban Day Success for the Purchasers

Free round trip tickets from Lima to their home will be presented to suburban visitors who came to the city to meet Miss Sue Burban June 4th. This was decided by the Suburban Trade Day association at the regular monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants Tuesday night.

A dinner in the Placencia Cafeteria was enjoyed by the 80 members present, which was preceded by several musical numbers in the Placencia Hall.

President R. B. Dunn, of the association, addressed the members, and introduced H. C. Phelps, publicity manager of the Suburban Day program. Phelps is a Dayton man, who is familiar with the weekly trade day, having conducted the campaign in that city.

Phelps spoke to the association, Tuesday night, outlining the scope of the work, and advising the profit that can be derived from the faults of starts made in other cities on the same proposition. He told how the first suburban day in Dayton was launched during a campaign for the commission-manager plan of government, similarly with Lima's present situation, and that the Suburban Day idea, while slow to start, is now as big a day in Dayton for the merchants as Saturday.

It was decided at the meeting to have committees of welcome meet incoming traction cars, and make the visiting people entirely at home. Advertising throughout the county and district will be launched, and 10,000 invitations have been mailed to residents within 25 miles radius of the city, inviting them to come to Lima June 4th and meet Miss Sue Burban.

MOTOR COP HURT

Collides With Standing Auto—Now in Hospital

Perry Roeder, 619 south Central, motor patrolman of the Lima police force was injured at noon Tuesday while riding a department motorcycle returning from his home to the police headquarters. He was taken to the city hospital in the Williams and Davis ambulance where it was found that his injuries were not of a serious nature, altho he was cut and bruised badly.

Roeder was riding on the right side of the street at the intersection of Spring and Central avenues where he encountered a Model Mills truck which made an attempt to turn east into the drive way of the Model Mills. Roeder in trying to pass in front of the machine failed to see another machine standing along the curb. He struck the machine, damaging the motor cycle to some extent.

BAN IS PERMANENT.

Gambling and lottery wheels of all descriptions will not be tolerated at any coming carnivals in Lima, according to the statement Wednesday of Chief of Police Roush. He said the police force will adhere strictly to the rule laid down that carnival companies will not be allowed to do things Lima citizens are forbidden to do.

FELDMAN AND CO. WILL OPEN NEW STORE SATURDAY

Establishment Will be Credit to Mercantile Business of Lima

Nothing has been left undone to make the Feldman and Company's new store, on north Main street, all that could be desired as a high class ladies' and children's shop.

Everything in the new location is the most modern, sanitary, and finest in equipment, and the almost entirely new stock which will be in place Saturday, the opening day, will be the best offered on the New York or Chicago markets.

The Arcade entrance display will mark an epoch in local department store advertisements, nothing like it being known in this city before. The massive side windows, so arranged to give a view of practically all sides of any article on display, and the "island" case, in the center of the spacious entrance are novelties.

The display of articles within the store will be made in the most attractive manner. Practically everything is under glass show cases, or within glass-fronted shelves, and the lighting arrangement has been planned to give the most pleasing effect to all articles on display.

The large downstairs floor is both spacious and well arranged. Twelve-foot aisles insure sufficient room for shoppers and low shelves give an air of roominess to the entire main floor.

In the front of the store are located the ribbon, stationary and glove counters. A special feature of the store will be the ribbon section, where the striking and gorgeous colors of the modern silks will be attractively shown within cases electrically lighted.

The glove counter is most modern. Roomy, backed chairs, padded counters and wash basins for the glove fitters under the counter are some of the features.

In the rear of the store is located the ladies' dress goods department, where all the conveniences for shoppers are included. Special display tables, where the goods are brought to the sitting customer are an innovation in Lima stores, and a mass of mirrors are arranged.

It is in consideration to the customer and salespeople that the managers showed the most concern and improvements. Large and comfortable rest rooms, one for the shopper on the balcony, and one for the employees down-stairs, gives an atmosphere of rest and quiet to the shop. Every saleslady will have a satisfactory seat, which will tend to keep her fresh and capable thruout the day.

Private rooms, wherein a tired mother may retire with her infant, and be comfortable, quiet and private, are a part of the management's plan.

About 60 people will be employed in the new store, a rest room for sales girls has been installed, with lockers for each, and lunch tables for those who care to eat in the building.

Jonas Wohlgemuth and Henry M. Kamerer, managers of the Feldman and Company, are pleased with the new location, and promise to make of it one of the most attractive stores of its kind in the country. Frequent trips to New York and Chicago, will insure that the shop has on display the very latest in all furnishings for the lady and child, and many special inducements will be offered the shopper, the management says.

VILLAGE PEOPLE TEAR UP INTERURBAN TRACKS

AKRON—War between the Northern Ohio Traction and Light Company and the village of Cuyahoga Falls, reached a climax Wednesday morning, when the village tore up the Akron-Cleveland interurban tracks at the gorge. The company is operating its cars over a line upon which the franchise has expired. A street car employee who interfered, was thrown in the lockup. The company later obtained an injunction to restrain the village from interfering with the tracks in the future.

WILL HEAR DITCH MATTER

Final hearing of the proposed Mather ditch in Richland township will be held by the county commissioners June 28. The ditch was ordered constructed Tuesday following the visit of the commissioners to the land thru which it is to be dug. The improvement will drain some twenty farms in the locality.

MEN AND MATTERS

Oliver M. Leith of the Canadian Motor Machine Gun Brigade, has returned to his home at 518 west North street, from his second trip overseas. Mr. Leith was with the American Ambulance corp attached to the French army prior to America's entrance into the war.

MUST PAY FINE

Guy Curtis, 112 east Market street, proprietor of the Lincoln Highway cigar store and pool room was ordered Tuesday afternoon to pay a fine and costs assessed against him last October in Justice Hamilton's court. At the time of his trial he was given a fine of $100 on two charges, one of keeping a place where intoxicating drinks were sold and the other of selling cider of alcoholic strength.

AGED COUPLE SWINDLED ON CHEAP EYE GLASSES

Police have as yet found no trace of a man who is supposed to be "Dr. Jones" and who swindled Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindall, each 75, of 214 north Park avenue of $150 as security for a pair of cheap eye glasses which he told them were worth $1,000.

Dr. Shelby Mumaugh reported the case to the police Tuesday evening after he had been called to the home of the aged people. Tuesday afternoon a stranger approached and introduced himself as Dr. Jones, an ex-army captain. They talked of the woman's failing sight, and he produced a cheap pair of glasses and later a slightly better pair which he claimed are worth $1,000 but it would be necessary to place $150 as security. He was given the money and departed. Police are looking for him.

Lovers of Sport Apparel Should View Our Wonderful Display

It is the most comprehensive display we have ever exhibited. All the new Swanky Swagger effects are evident; for the Country Club, Outing, Golf, Tennis and other pastimes—surprise will be shown at the low prices they cite.

Our Showing of Stunning Summer Dresses

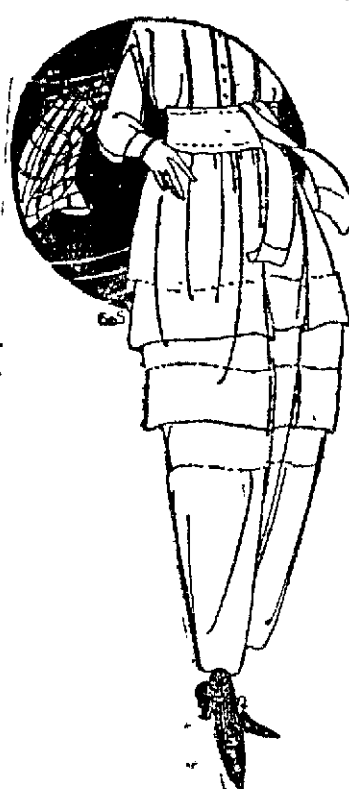

Admirable, indeed, is the careful woman in which every one of these dresses are made, and it adds not a little to their attractiveness. As for the styles, it would be impossible to describe them in this limited space. They are so wonderfully fetching and becoming and there is such a great diversity of them contained in this exhibition, that we couldn't hope to do them justice by a pen and ink description. But if you want to view the loveliest garments in Printed Georgette, Taffeta, Voiles, Sheer Organdies, Nets, and the striking sport garments in silk knitted skirt and blouse and pongee, in pretty combination—you can see them here at pleasing prices.

Charming Summer and Sport Suits

Charming in creation, correct in style and diversified in modeling are the three potent factors which commend them to your favor. Ceaseless vigilance on our part has kept from the display all but the desirable garments which we knew would have been your own choice, if you had selected them—they come in Pongee, Tricotee, Silk, and Linen.

For Sport or Street Wear These Charming Skirts Are Sure to Please

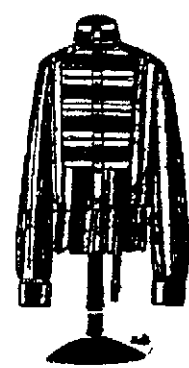

Sweaters for Summer Sport Wear

Much might excusably be said for this showing of sweaters, which includes every conceivable color from the vivid novelties to the conventional tones, either by themselves or in combination. Many different weaves, in coat and slip over the head styles.

We have anticipated your summer requirements with an assortment that has never been rivalled in this vicinity. Not only is the number of styles large, but the garments themselves are more dressy and effective than any we have heretofore shown. We are safe in assuring you entire satisfaction with any skirt you may purchase here, because we made sure of their quality and desirability before we bought them. Choose from clever models in Panta-Sil, Georgette, Crepe, Kums-Kums, Baronet Satins, Wash Satins and Poplins. In very attractive shades, they are moderately priced.

Bewitching New Waists

Is it no wonder why women are buying so many blouses this season. I here never was a time that blouses were so pretty and becoming. The newer arrivals are of Georgette Crepe, Crepe De Chine, etc. Showing effective copies, of imported models.

White Wash Skirts

Many pretty styles in White Wash Skirts—Pique, Whip Cord and Linen; all are so attractively priced.

A Clever Garment For Sport Wear

Jaunty little waist line Jackets—will be seen this summer on Club House Veranda, on the Links, and too they will be worn on the street with a striking skirt. These new garments are shown in our section in Rose, Grey and Blue.

THE FRIENDLY TOBACCO

"Friendly" is a very good word to describe the positively pleasing quality that sets VELVET tobacco apart.

There is that indescribable something about VELVET that is associated in men's minds with the thought of a friend.

It is a satisfying smoke—never harsh; without a bite. Like a friend it "agrees" with you no matter how much you use it.

Long, patient ageing—in wooden hogsheads—does it. Friendship must ripen slowly. Good tobacco the same way. An army of men have learned this through VELVET.

Today is a good time to get a lot of comfort out of a pipeful of friendly VELVET.

ANOTHER VICTORY WON BY PENROSE

Progressives Vote For Senator When Democrats Force Issue

WASHINGTON—By a vote of 48 to 43 an attempt of senate Democrats to unseat Senator Penrose as chairman of the finance committee was defeated Wednesday.

The vote put "progressive" Republicans on record as voting against elimination of Penrose, against whom they conducted an unsuccessful fight in the Republican caucus.

"That it was the Democratic purpose to put the progressives on record was revealed by Senator Thomas, Colorado, who said that 'from now on there is only one wing of the Republican party—the stand-pats.'"

"We've heard a good deal of agitation against Senator Penrose," said Thomas. "Personally I never could understand how those who strained at the Penrose gnat could swallow the Lodge camel."

The test of party strength came when Senator Hitchcock, moved to strike out the word chairman after Penrose's name in the committee lists, Senator Lodge moved to lay Hitchcock's motion on the table and this was done.

Previously the two parties had wrangled over the proper method of electing senate nominees. Hitchcock contended senate rules required a separate vote for each chairman whereas Lodge presented an order an order for election of all Republican committee chairmen and members as a unit. Hitchcock presented a substitute which was tabled as to 45.

Following the test votes, Thomas began a long prepared speech attacking Republicans for the filibuster against appropriations with which they closed the last session. His speech temporarily held up the senate organization.

"It is clear that the old guard is in the saddle," he said, "and now that they lion and the lamb have laid down together, I am surprised that senators did not try parliamentary means to escape from going on record."

HAWKER AND NAVIGATOR, SAVED, ARE IDOLIZED BY GREAT BRITAIN

INJURIES FORCE HIM TO GIVE UP ATLANTIC FLIGHT

Captain C. W. Morgan

Capt. C. W. Morgan who was to attempt the trans-Atlantic flight from St. John's, N. F., with F. P. Raynham in a Martinsyde plane, has been advised by physicians that he must not fly again. He was out about the time when the plane crashed to the ground in attempting to follow Harry Hawker and Mackenzie Grieve in their start. Physicians say he may lose his sight as a result of the accident. Raynham intends to obtain a new aid and continue plans for the flight.

Star on map shows where Harry Hawker and Mackenzie Grieve were picked up. Dotted line shows route they tried to follow and black line shows route they had flown before forced to descend. Photo is of Hawker.

Harry Hawker and his navigator, Mackenzie Grieve are being lionized by all Great Britain on their virtual return from the dead. The daring aviators who essayed to fly direct from St. John's, N. F., to England without a stop in an effort to beat the American seaplanes across, were given up as lost three days after they left St. John's, when no word was heard from them. Then, a week after the start of their flight, came news that they had been picked up 800 miles from their goal by a little tramp steamer.

MAY BACK DANIELS

Republicans Likely to Support Little Navy Plan

WASHINGTON — Republicans may support Secretary Daniels' advice to abandon the "biggest navy" program—but not as an evidence of faith in the league of nations.

Senator Poindexter of Washington, leading member of the senate naval affairs committee, declared that Daniels' suggestion "is in entire harmony with the process of national disintegration being fostered by the administration. The league of nations is not an established fact so far as the United States is concerned and will not be on any such basis as that. It will be time enough for the United States to put a stop to its naval growth and development when other nations do."

There is nothing to indicate that Great Britain or Japan will stop such naval construction and will enable them to maintain their present position as great sea-powers, Poindexter said.

Chairman Butler, of the house naval committee, said Daniels' plan probably will receive backing purely as an economic measure.

Daniels is "to appear before the committee again Wednesday."

WEALTHY YOUNG WIFE OF WISCONSIN YANK MISSING

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis. — After two days of anxious searching, Port Washington, a town of 4,000 persons, has decided to bare its sorrow to the world on the hope that it may be relieved. Mrs. Anne Ramsey Forebush, 25 years old, daughter of W. H. Ramsey, cashier of the First National Bank, reputed to be the richest man in town, is missing. She has not been seen since Sunday night, when she left her home, saying she was only going for a walk. She did not return.

Villagers by the hundreds, Boy Scouts, the sheriff and his force, the state guard company, and returned soldiers from the 32nd division are searching Ozaukee county seeking her. Bloodhounds brought in from Joliet, Ill. prison, were used, but they failed.

British Flyers Decorated by King George

LONDON.—Harry Hawker and Mackenzie Grieve were decorated by King George Wednesday with the cross of the Royal Air Force, the first time this order—newly created—has been bestowed upon any one. The queen and the Prince of Wales greeted the aviators at the palace. Hawker as cheered wherever he appeared in public. He and Grieve received a tremendous reception when they arrived in London Tuesday night, being borne thru the streets by Australian soldiers. They were greeted like victors. Hundreds of thousands of Londoners jammed the streets or leaned from windows and house-tops cheering the aviators. At the railway station the crowd was so dense a mounted policeman took Hawker up behind him.

More than 1,000 dignitaries welcomed Hawker and Grieve at the station, including the mayor of Saint Pancras in scarlet robes, borough councillors and high officers of the air force.

SERVICE PLANNED

Evangelistic services to be held simultaneously by all the Lima churches during the coming winter were planned at a meeting of the Federated Council of Churches at a meeting Tuesday night. Each pastor will conduct the services at his own church. A committee to raise $500 for incidental expenses was named. The amount to be raised will be apportioned according to the membership of the different churches.

FOOTACHE RESULT OF THE DRY REGIME

Center of Pain Shifted—Jazz Has Succeeded Gin in Popularity

The center of pain resulting from dissipation has been shifted thru the prohibition of liquor from the morning after headache to the morning after foot-ache. Jazz has succeeded, gin, the twisty rhythmic foot-turns have followed the tangled path of dissolution. Instead of sipping the hours away over the insidious cocktail, the cafe habitue is now skipping the hours away to the intoxicating twang of guitar and ukelele. McCullough's Park is attracting hundreds of gay dancers to its pol-

COMPLETE "RIGHT ABOUT" SEEN IN BRITISH LABOR

NEW YORK.—Improvements in the labor situation in Great Britain since last February, have amounted almost to a complete "right-about," Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank, declared in an interview with the United Press Wednesday. Vanderlip recently arrived from Europe. America, in his belief, will follow closely these economic adjustments. Vanderlip stated, adding that amicable settlements of disputes between labor and capital in Britain is the only way the country can be saved from the radicalism sweeping Europe, sparks from which, it sufficiently fanned, would inevitably reach across the Atlantic.

PLAN INTENSIVE LEAGUE BATTLES

Orators For and Against the Covenant to Tour Country

WASHINGTON.—The American people are about to be bombarded with argument for and against the league of nations.

The country will become a great forensic battleground, with arguments and denials flung into the public's ears from three sources at once, the senate, the stump and every sort of publication.

The senate battle already has begun. On the stump former President Taft, Homer Cummings and others favoring the league, are to pave the way for the home coming of President Wilson, who is still being urged to go directly to the country in behalf of the league.

The league's opponents also are preparing their stump fight. Plans are being discussed for so shaping the senate's legislative program that a number of senators may be released to make a tour, carrying them to the pacific coast.

Meantime, efforts are being continued to have the Republican party take a definite stand on the league. Certain party leaders who have been holding out against this are reported to have become convinced that it will be impossible to keep the league from being a factor in the 1920 campaign, because of the administration attitude. They are, therefore, considering the advisability of an open declaration that will leave no doubt as to how the Republican party views the league.

COMPLETION OF NAVAL PROGRAM RECOMMENDED

WASHINGTON.—Immediate completion of the three-year navy program authorized by congress in 1916, has been recommended by the general board of the navy, Secretary Daniels told the house naval affairs committee Wednesday.

This program includes four battleships and six battle cruisers, work on which was held up by the necessity of building smaller craft during the war.

The board also recommended that additional protection be provided for the battle cruisers at the expense of small reduction in speed.

BOY IS DROWNED

LORAIN, Ohio.—Elbert Hawes, 17, of Pittsburg, was seized with cramps and drowned in the river here Tuesday night. He was a member of the crew of the steamer Lake Freeborn.

TO TAKE PICTURES OF SOLAR ECLIPSE

Prof. David Todd, director of the Amherst college astronomical observatory, has sailed for Montevideo, where he will take observations of a solar eclipse May 29. Professor Todd will take his observations from a naval seaplane at an altitude of 19,000 or 15,500 feet. He predicts that his plane, which is an innovation in astronomy, will aid in obtaining clearer photographs of an eclipse than have ever been made.

TRIAL OF DAMAGE SUIT AT VAN WERT MAY END TODAY

VAN WERT.—Trial of the case of John K. Townsend against the Ohio Electric railroad for $10,000 damages for an alleged injury received when struck by a Lima street car will be completed late Wednesday afternoon, is the prediction of attorneys in the case. Trial began Monday morning. The action was tried once before in common pleas court of Van Wert county, was carried to the court of appeals and sent back for a retrial in common pleas court. Parmenter and Emaus of Lima are representing the plaintiff, while John Able of Lima and O. W. Kerns of Van Wert represent the defendant company.

DEFER DRY VOTE.

COLUMBUS.—The new Crabbe dry bills will not come up for passage in the house until the legislature returns for the recess June 12. Th dries are not quite ready to ask for a vote, hoping they may get enough votes later to insure passage of the bills as emergency legislation.

VOTE ON RELIEF MEASURE TODAY

House to Pass on Bill to Aid Cities

COLUMBUS—The house Wednesday was to vote on the new bill submitted by the joint taxation committee, designed to give relief to near-bankrupt cities and school districts. It has passed the senate.

The Miller bill providing for appointment of a prohibition commissioner and deputies by the attorney general, has been approved by the house.

Representative Dunn's bill, which would give the governor right to interfere with the Dempsey-Willard championship bout, if the event should be held to be a prize fight, was to be voted on by the house Wednesday. Dunn failed to have his resolution passed as an emergency measure late Wednesday.

The Busby-Fouts highway bill, has been passed by both branches over Cox's veto. It now goes to the senate.

FORD MEN HEARD

Employees Testify in Million Dollar Libel Suit

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich.—More Ford employees were put on the stand to testify Wednesday. In all, 24 employees of the Ford Motor Company who served on the Mexican border, will be asked to give testimony in the libel suit of their employer against the Chicago Tribune. Nearly a dozen testified Monday and Tuesday.

Judge Tucker Tuesday gave a hint as to the decision he will make on the Ford brief asking the elimination of the national situation at the time of the Tribune editorial, from the evidence.

In cross-examining a witness, Attorney Kirkland asked questions regarding the strength of certain national guard units and attorneys for the plaintiff objected to the court Judge Tucker overruled the objection and from this ruling some believe he intends to admit this sort of testimony in full.

MEMORIAL DAY PLANS AT VAN WERT FINISHED

VAN WERT—Plans for Memorial Day in Van Wert has been completed by the committees of Veterans who have charge of the arrangements each year. In addition to the parade in the afternoon at 1:45 a meeting will be held at the First Methodist church at 3 o'clock. The addresses will be delivered by Prof. C. H. Freeman of Ohio Northern University on behalf of the Civil War Veterans, by Captain Arthur C. Gilpin on behalf of the Spanish War Veterans and by Captain C. G. Church, 145th Infantry, for the World War Veterans.

WHY PEARLS ARE POPULAR

Pearls are today the favorite neck ornament of womankind. Just why they are so popular is little understood. Here is an expert's opinion.

"Pearls—because of their peculiar sheen—are 'complimentary' to every complexion. Blondes and Brunettes alike can wear them with equally good results. The roundness of the pearl and the soft drape of the string add to their charm. Any colors may be worn with them."

We have made a close study of the pearl situation and have been successful in acquiring a stock of the best grades hard to duplicate as they are extremely scarce.

HOISTING THEIR OWN PERCENT
A noted food expert has reported that the sterilized apple juice bought in the open market contain more alcohol percentage than the justly famed 2.75 per cent beer. That may be important to some, but there are a number who would like to know if apple juices will mix well with beer.

Human nature seems to be pretty much the same the world over, except in Germany and Mexico.

Asking A Square Deal

FOLLOWING THE supposed end of the war, Jews all over the United States are making protest against the continued murders of their race in Poland and Rumania. In Chicago a few days ago, 25,000 Jewish people paraded the streets demanding that the massacres be stopped. Gray-bearded men and aged women marched side by side with mothers carrying babies and banners interspersing the thousands in line.

IN THE LATER public assemblage, Dr. John P. Brushingham declared Jews wanted no special privileges, but just a "square deal." Clarence Darrow in closing the meeting said in part: "THERE SHOULD BE more freedom over the world for the Jews. The question of persecution of the Jews is an old one. They are persecuted and discriminated against all over the world, even in this country. I have seen them discriminated against in the courts by those who were there to administer justice.

"WE ARE FORMING a number of new nations; it should be written into their constitutions that they will enforce equal rights for all people. Poland should be made to give assurance the Jews will receive fair treatment."

The Boom Goes On

ALL OVER THE United States the boom in prosperity goes on. Rumors are rife of stupendous automobile mergers, of higher prices, of increased trade both domestic and foreign. The whole trend of business is now towards volume. Instead of the many little concerns of the past more and more are you going to see the monster department store, the great automobile syndicate with factories in many cities, the chain of retail establishments, the big printing plants capable of caring for immense volume.

THE LESSON OF standard oil is that a big concern can produce cheaper than a small one. The boom is all along this line and stocks of various companies affected are steadily going higher, higher, because their earnings will be greater and their sales price lower.

Time to Buy

RETAIL MERCHANTS now frankly advise patrons it is time to buy. The index of commodity prices the world over started to go up again in April after a slight decline following the armistice. Cotton goods, woollens, leathers, in fact all manufactures have firmed up. Europe is buying up the ready-made stocks of New York. Lima merchants now agree that there will be no decline, but every indication that they are at the bottom. It is time to buy all the wearables from shoestrings to clothing.

MISS LIMA: "A woman to keep cool takes off her rings in hot weather and dons her furs."

Municipal Work

JUNE FIRST will be ushered in on the calendar Sunday and while The News has no desire to say "I told you so," yet our prediction last January that no municipal paving, sewer or other work would get under way before May first, is now obsolete. Contracts are beginning to be looked over, but the employment of common labor is not apparent and by the time it is apparent, common labor will be working at a premium and the tax payer will foot 40c an hour for shovel artists.

CONFESSIONS of an EVERY DAY WIFE

BY IDAH M'LAUNE GIBSON

EILENE MAKES ME HER CONFIDANT

Valerie and I went into a downtown restaurant for luncheon, and found Eilene and Major Gordon.

As always, Major Gordon was more than polite to me; but I had begun to realize it was because of the girl of the long ago of whom I reminded him.

I could see that Eilene was really becoming interested in the Major, and I was glad.

"Mrs. Charlton will be here tomorrow," he remarked after we had seated ourselves and ordered a light lunch. "I have just been telling Miss Symone that she will be sure to like her very much."

I was not so sure of that, as I knew that Mrs. Charlton adored the Major and would immediately realize his interest in Eilene.

Strange, isn't it, how few of our really intimate friends like each other when they meet?

I have had a man or woman say to me, "You must know 'So-and-so,' for you two are my nearest friends, and I know you will just love each other." But I never did anything more than actively hate the persons referred to and wonder what my friend could see in them.

Just as I was leaving I had a thrill, and I was rather ashamed of myself because my heart jumped so. I thought I caught a glimpse of my playmate across the room, but I couldn't be certain and later I concluded I was mistaken.

I took Eilene in the car with me and we put Dick's little wife down at Aunt Margie's door. After leaving her Eilene said, "Margot, Major Gordon has asked me to marry him."

"Quick work," I remarked, smiling.

"What shall I tell him, Margot?"

"What do you want to tell him?"

"I want to say 'Yes,' she answered with a blush. "You may think it strange that I have changed so quickly, but since I have known the Major I have realized how selfish George Mordyke is. You remember the love affair I had with him while at school in New York. And, much to my relief, I have found that I really did not love him. He thrills me, I think, with his supreme masculinity, and that is all."

"When are you going to say 'Yes' to the Major?"

"Never."

"What?"

"Well, I cannot tell the Major about George."

"Why not? Many a girl thinks she is in love with the wrong man until the right one comes along."

"But, Margot, I did not tell you all."

I looked at Eilene in sudden surprise.

"Nothing, my dear, but just a youthful indiscretion; but it might look worse to Major Gordon. You see, that year I was away at school I thought I was deeply in love with George, and after we had become engaged he always wrote to me as 'dear little wife,' and I said, 'dear big husband.' I had a letter from him yesterday in which he says that since he has been away from me so long he began to realize that he really loves me; and at the thought of my dear name the thrill of our early love comes back. Then he says, 'I have been reading all your sweet letters over. (I wonder if you know that I have kept them all.) Do you remember the one you wrote me after that day you ran away from school on a plea of seeing your mother in town, and came to tea at my room? I expect you will call it, at George's rooms, where his sister, a girlish foolishness, but it is very dear to me. It reads: 'Darling big husband, the hours spent with you yesterday I am living over and over again. In all the world are there lovers such as we?'"

"I am just now waiting will all impatience until I can see you again, and in the circle of your arms hear you say again: 'Mine, mine forever, my sweetheart, my wife.'"

Eilene looked frankly into my face as she finished reading, and said: "You would not think, would you, Margot, that I had written that silly stuff after a perfectly innocent tea one, and who only left the room for a moment or two as George bade me good-bye!" (Tomorrow—"Eilene's Dilemma.")

SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headache, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

NUXATED IRON

Helps Make Strong, Sturdy Men and Beautiful, Healthy Women

3,000,000 People Use It Annually As a Tonic, Strength and Blood-builder

MAKE THIS TEST

If you are not well or strong you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next, take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, un-down people, who were ailing all the while, have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance in 2 weeks' time in many instances.

Mercator's Iron: Nuxated Iron which is prescribed and recommended by physicians is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to chemists everywhere. Unlike the older ironous iron products it is easily assimilated and does not cause the stomach to become black nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee powerful and certain relief of all iron deficiency or they will refund your money. It is dispensed by all good druggists.

Today's Health Hints

SOMERSAULTS NOT EXERCISE

A number of readers have somehow acquired the comfortable notion that if they take six somersaults twice a day they are getting considerable healthful exercise. This is unfortunate to the somersaulters. It may be unfortunate for the somersauter.

A somersault is just a convenient way of stirring up the great splanchnic pool in which so much (about one-third) of the blood of the body tends to accumulate when we are too dignified or aged. It also stirs up the divers puddles and back eddies along the alimentary canal that is clogged (sagging) or otherwise blocked by kinks of the food tube.

Whatever good somersauting does—and far be it from me to deny that the habit seems to do a lot of good for the dignified and the aged young persons who manage to muster sufficient courage to carry on the habit—whatever good this foolish business does may be attributed to the relief of auto-intoxication depending on intestinal stasis (a doctor's way of saying constipation) and to relief of the circulatory deficiencies depending on splanchnic congestion.

It stands to reason that if one-third, more or less, of your blood is idling in the splanchnic pool you are not enjoying all the blessings of a good circulation. It is equally obvious to anyone who is not a confirmed pill fiend that the endless ills of our abnormal upright human posture are best opposed by reversion to our primal condition, that is, hanging by the tail from a tree or rolling about the greenward as we used to do when we were healthy, happy children.

It looks darned foolish, I will admit, for a fully grown adult to attempt to turn half a dozen somersaults down the hall or across the bedroom floor. But it doesn't look so foolish to me as a canister of alleged liver pills on the dresser or a bottle of somebody's glorified oil in the pantry.

About the most absurd habit I know of is the habit of shooting cathartics and such junk down the alimentary tube—yes, and a very harmful habit, if people could only realize.

Somersaults are not exercise, however. That must be clearly understood. Let no reader delude himself or herself that six somersaults night and morning will serve as a sort of placebo in lieu of the regular night and morning physical training. Somersaults are merely a natural remedy for so-called "liver spots," constipation, flatulency, alleged "liver complaint," auto-intoxication, cold hands and cold feet, sallow complexion, grouchy temper and the gloom.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Cancer of the Stomach

What are the symptoms of cancer of the stomach? In what part of the stomach does cancer most frequently occur? Does cancer affect the back? Would a woman be apt to have cancer at the age of 31? Can cancer be operated on successfully in persons of the age of 31? (A. B.)

ANSWER—There are no characteristic symptoms, but man or woman over thirty-five developing any stomach trouble with any loss of weight should consider cancer a possible cause and seek careful medical examination. Cancer most frequently occurs near the lower outlet (pylorus) of the stomach. Pain might be referred to the back in a case of stomach cancer, but pain is not a very common symptom of beginning of cancer. Most cases of cancer occur in persons over forty or forty-five, but now and then cancer occurs in younger persons. The only hope of saving life, in case of cancer of the stomach, is an operation done in the early stage.

PACIFIC FLEET TO BE ORGANIZED BY JULY 1

WASHINGTON — A Pacific fleet is being organized to include practically half the navy's fighting craft. Secretary Daniels told the house naval committee Tuesday afternoon.

Plans will be finished by July 1, and the newly organized fleet will move into the Pacific this summer Daniels added.

Creation of two major fleets has been impossible in the past, owing to the small size of the navy and the war needs, he explained. Both Atlantic and Pacific fleets will be in command of an admiral.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WALK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her to Health.

Perth Amboy, N.J. — "For three years I suffered with a severe female trouble, was nervous, had backache and a pain in my side most of the time. I had dizzy spells and was often so faint I could not walk across the floor. The doctor said I would have to have an operation. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my newspaper, and tried it. Now I am better, feel strong, have no pains, backache or dizzy spells. Every one tells me how well I look, and I tell them to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound — that is what makes me feel well and look well. I recommended it to my sister and she is using it now. You can use this letter if you wish, for it is certainly a grand remedy for a woman's ills." — Mrs. MARTHA STANISLAWSKI, 524 Penn St., Perth Amboy, N.J.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacement, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

NEW GOVERNMENT PLAN DISCUSSED

Lima Labor to Hold Open Meeting to Talk over C.M. Plan Soon

An open meeting for discussion of the proposed change to commission-manager form of city government, is planned by the Trades and Labor Council, which met in regular session Tuesday evening. A committee was instructed to make arrangements for the gathering, and will announce the date and place later.

No action was taken at this meeting to approve or disapprove of the commission form, as sufficient reports have not yet been received from which to form an opinion. Some of the delegates spoke against the change, while others claimed it made little difference to the working people what kind of municipal government they lived under. One man favored the manager plan.

A meeting of the general committee representing all the unions on the Ohio Electric railway lines, is scheduled to be held at Springfield, on Wednesday, when labor matters will be taken up with President Schoepf and other executives. Status of miscellaneous employees of the company, power house men, shop men, etc., who are demanding recognition and are supported by the trainmen, is expected to be threshed out.

Organizer Huber, of Indianapolis, spoke on the general labor situation. He is doing organization work for the local Carpenters' Union and will address an open meeting of the carpenters and joiners, at Fisk hall Wednesday night.

PHONE COMPANY GIVEN HEARING

Additional Figures Furnished State Commission by Officers of Lima Concern

The Lima Telephone and Telegraph company had another hearing before the Public Utilities Commission at Columbus Tuesday morning in connection with the application for an increase on business telephone service.

At a former hearing the matter was put over to a later date to enable the local company to substantiate their plea with additional figures, showing their basic cost and operation expenses. This was considered as particularly favorable to the Lima concern (as they claim their basic figures will speak louder than words before the commission).

George Metheany, general manager; H. A. Christy, auditor, and D. J. Cable, president and attorney for the company, were present at the hearing and returned Tuesday evening. No decision was rendered, but it is supposed a date will be set for the rendering soon. The company applied for the increase to take effect June 1st, and it is likely that if the increase be granted this month the new rate will become effective July 1st.

MAN HELD AT VAN WERT FOR U. S. AUTHORITIES

VAN WERT.—Van Wert police officers are awaiting word from the war department as to what disposition to make of Edward Hilsfeldt, arrested here when he failed to give a good account of why he should be wearing a navy uniform. Officers at first believed that he was Harry Bracker, wanted by the war department for alleged theft of $30,000 worth of the government money. Investigation showed, however, that he was not Bracker. He has failed to explain why he is here and has told several conflicting stories about trips across the country on wages, an effort to get home, being robbed in the Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. and being held up in New York, according to the trolly.

SOCIETY AND THE CLUBS
BY MARGARET SIMPSON

The Workers Class of the Market Street Presbyterian church held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. J. H. Hoyer, of south West street, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. I. M. Pangle and Mrs. Brotherton were assistant hostesses. Mrs. George Simpson, the president, lead the devotional exercises. Mrs. Royal Albridge beautifully sang "Caroline," which was followed by another group of songs by Mrs. E. J. Curtis.

Reports of the charity work being done was given by the various committees and plans were suggested for an entertainment to be staged sometime in the near future. In the serving of an appetizing luncheon the hostesses were assisted by little Elizabeth Lamb and John Basinger.

The place of the next meeting has not been definitely decided upon.

Special committees for the G. A. R. Encampment were appointed at the meeting of the Daughters of Veterans held Tuesday evening at the Memorial Hall. Forty-five dollars was turned over to the treasurer from entertainments and dues. It was decided that at the next meeting which will be held June 10, initiation of new members would take place.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

Victory club, Mrs. Hamstutler.
Allen County Historical society, Memorial Hall.
Victory Supper, Bethany Lutheran church, 4:30 o'clock until 7 o'clock.
Ammitte chapter of West Minister Guild, Miss May Davies, evening.
Trinity chapter O. E. S., hall, evening.
Y. W. C. A. Bacon bat, 6 o'clock.
Piano recital, pupils of Miss Ella Eysenbach, First Reformed church.

THURSDAY
Trew Nov club, afternoon.
District Methodist W. H. M. S., Anna, Ohio.
Pythian Sisters, dance and card party, evening.
Independent Twelve, Mrs. Waters, afternoon.

Rev. Kirk B. O'Ferrall gave an interesting talk on the "History of the Episcopal Church" at the meeting of the St. Martha's Guild held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Hare, Jr., of 882 West Market street. The remainder of the afternoon was spent with social chat and needlework. At the tea hour delicious refreshments were served. The time and place of the next meeting has not been decided upon as yet.

Mrs. Joe Meyer, of Celina, and Miss Irene McNally, of St. Marys, are spending several days here as the guest of friends.

Mrs. Lou Weimert, of St. Marys, is the guest of relatives in Lima.

Games, puzzles, tables, surgical dressings, hospital supplies, and many other useful things are included in a long list of articles received at the Lake Division headquarters from the Junior Red Cross of Lima. Patriotic children of the public schools, all members of the Junior Red Cross have done wonders in the amassing of convalescent soldiers and sailors and to relieve suffering of children overseas.

The Junior Red Cross of which Mrs. J. B. Polling is chairman, was a large organization but because of the influenza epidemic it was necessarily discontinued, but it is expected that in the fall they will again take up their work.

In the past twenty months articles sent to the headquarters included: 815 hospital supplies; 432 hospital garments; 261 refugee garments; 263 knitted articles; 1525 story books; and 10 Packing boxes.

Trinity chapter of the O. E. S. will meet Wednesday evening. Mrs. Mary Oswald, of Findlay, annual inspector of the chapter by the D. G. M. will be present. Floral work and drill at 3:30 o'clock, with banquet at 5:30 o'clock. Chapter opens at 7 o'clock. Members of order are cordially invited to attend.

Marian Keller and Alma Sneath, returned, Monday to Lima, having visited over the week-end at their parental homes in St. Marys. They were accompanied by Freda Bohemeyer, of this city who was their guest.

Mrs. Alice Adams Shealy, of the Black Block, was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shumate, of Bellefontaine.

THE LIMA NEWS—SOCIETY PAGE
IT IS HIGH TIME TO CHOOSE NEW BLOUSES TO WEAR WITH SUMMER SKIRTS AND SUITS

By ELOISE.

Out of the mass of women who search for blouses at this time of year there are those who want sport blouses, lingerie blouses, dress blouses, tailored blouses, tunic blouses and a hoide of others. The most marvelous thing about it is the fact that the shopkeeper, however modest, can suit every one of these women as to color, material, style and trimming. It matters not how capricious or practical the woman is. A just now there is little call for the costume blouse, as the one-piece frock of georgette or some summery material is more popular than the suit for dress occasions. The tailored and sport blouse, however, is in great demand and new and adorable models are being devised every day. It would be a revelation to some women to spend two or three days in the receiving room of a large blouse shop and see the dozens and dozens of boxed blouses come in from the factories, two and three orders within a morning and every order with four or five different styles and materials.

A fresh blouse with a white or plaid sports skirt is never amiss on a summer morning and the summer vacationist find the separate skirt and blouse a perfect boon, for it may be used to fill in on many occasions where other frocks and costumes would be cumbersome in the hand luggage.

These two lingerie blouses will be useful and attractive addition to any summer wardrobe or vacation suitcase. The one below is a charming town blouse of pink plaid muslin with collar, cuffs and vestee of tucked and piquet white organdie. It is a cool and fresh looking semi-tailored waist which the business girl will like for wear with her suit or the housewife will like for her morning in town. Very striking, indeed, is the barred blouse above. It is fashioned of vivid blue and white voile and being a hand-made garment it has a distinctive note all its own. A variation of the Buster Brown collar in white organdie and pleatings edged with organdie down the front and on the cuffs add the finishing touch. A blue straw hat to match the blouse with a white satin crown and bow makes a good shade hat for wear on the links, in the gardens, or on outings of any kind.

The dance and card party given Tuesday evening at the St. Rose auditorium by the Ladies Catholic Benevolence association was a big success with more than 75 couples in attendance. The hall was made attractive with palms and ferns Miss Irene O'Connor and Jack Fitzgerald were awarded the prizes at the conclusion of cards. A jazz orchestra furnished the music for dancing. At midnight dainty refreshments were served.

The Ladies Aid of the Epworth church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Conrad, of north Jefferson avenue. Miss French was in charge of the devotionals. An interesting reading was given by Mrs. Harpster. Mrs. Sweeney and daughter of Urbana, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Conrad and son, George, Mr. and Mrs. S. Conrad, and Mrs. Heffner were guests of the afternoon. At 4 o'clock dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Sweeney and Mrs. E. L. Conrad.

The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Gibson, of east Market street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bradley, of west North street, Mrs. Mary Bradley, and Augusta Schuler, were called to Van Wert by the death of Charles Risse.

Mrs. O. E. Chenoweth, has returned to her home on west Market street, after spending several days as the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Cheney Burnham, of Columbus.

Miss Faye Harrison, who has been the guest of Miss Marian Dunn, of the Shawnee Road for the past several weeks, has returned to her home in St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Neely, of Van Wert, are the guests of relatives in this city.

Complimenting Miss Marguerite Feltz, who is to be the June bride of Richard Berger, Miss Albra Finch, of Atlantic avenue, entertained with a silver shower. Music and dancing were the pastimes of the evening, after which the guest repaired to the dining room where a delicious three course luncheon was served. The center of the table was banked with pink sweet peas, under which the chest of silver was hidden. The lacy place cards which marked the guests places were tied with ribbon to the center of the sweet peas. At the conclusion of the luncheon the guests pulled the ribbons and the sweet peas fell apart revealing the attractive chest of silver.

Guests of the evening included: Misses Bertha Falk, Helen Killoran, Cecile De Curtin, Esther Killoran, Helen Cox, Winifred Stapleton, Irene Killoran and Mrs. Bergman.

Mrs. J. M. Morgan, of Franklin avenue, was hostess to the Win One Class of the West Baptist church at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. W. Roberts, Mrs. S. A. Sewell and H. S. Clevedon, acted as assistant hostesses. Mrs. McGee and Mrs. Charles Walters had charge of the devotionals. Several interesting readings were given by Mrs. Shockey, and Mrs. Hodges. Mrs. Morgan whistled with the Victrola. In a clever contest Mrs. Roberts was prize winner. At the conclusion of the program delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wemmer, and daughter, Pauline, of 934 west Market street, have returned from French Lick Springs, Indiana, where they have been spending the past month.

There will be a special called meeting of the Committee of Management, Publicity committee and the headquarters committee of the Y. W. C. A. at the Y. W. C. A. Club and Recreation Center, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Bertha Herbst, of Wapakoneta was a Tuesday visitor in Lima.

CARNIVAL WILL OPEN IN LIMA NEXT WEEK

Another carnival is coming to Lima. Announcement has been made by the local order of Lions that the Ed. A. Evans greater shows will open at the Main and Murphy street grounds next Monday for a week under their auspices.

The company is carried on 22 special cars and consists of 15 attractions of the latest kind, and includes all of the units which go to make up a complete carnival. It is said.

The Royal Order of Lions was started here February 24, of this year and now has a membership of 799. Frank Moyer is president and E. E. Wingate, secretary.

UNCLE SAM MAY HAVE TO REFUND LUXURY TAX

WASHINGTON—Internal revenue collectors Wednesday were facing the problem of refunding more than $1,500,000 to taxpayers when the luxury tax is repealed, unless congress comes to their rescue by setting the repeal to date ten days or two weeks after passage of the repealing act.

It will take ten days after the repealer becomes a law, to notify retailers to quit collecting the tax, officials say.

It is estimated the 40,000,000 persons would become entitled to refunds before the work of halting collections could be completed.

WHEN A GIRL MARRIES

"Don't call Terry—yet," said Betty, shyly. "I want to talk to you first."

"Then I'll get all comfy in a chair," I replied, rising from my kneeling position by the bed, which I kept fearing I'd joggle and so dislodge the bandaged right arm lying in a strange mechanical "cradle" above the coverlet. "Oh, Betty, dear, I'm so glad I remembered Miss Moss. Tony made me by playing detective and asking Jeanie where she'd met you first."

"You clever Princess Anne—to figure that Miss Moss is my friend in need," murmured Betty, with shining eyes.

"Your friend in need—I wish I had been allowed to be that friend, Betty B.," I answered, remembering what Betty had called herself the time she helped me buy Virginia's house present—the very day I had first reached out humbly asking for the friendship I had once been too stupid to take.

Betty must have remembered. For a minute she lay quite still, smiling at me wistfully. Then she spoke with a husky little catch in her throat:

"I asked you to promise that if you ever needed a friend you'd come to Betty B. And now it's Betty who needs the friend, and you've come—so far—to me."

Her voice trailed off and in another minute my splendid, brave, proud Betty was sobbing for all the world like a tired little girl.

I slipped to the floor at her left side and pillowed her head against my heart, smoothing her soft hair and murmuring to her as if she were my own little sick girl.

After a minute or two Betty lay still and then a muffled voice spoke: "I'm so tired, Anne—so tired!"

"I know dear," I answered. "You've borne the pain and the fear all alone. I used to see you press your hand to your lips and wonder."

Betty sighed and snuggled closer. "It was vanity."

"You big baby! You regular woman, you!" I replied. "But I'm sure it was more than that. The pain?"

"It was awful, Anne," Betty shuddered. "That scar burned like fire, and it seemed to be dragging my fingers back and twisting up my arm. I couldn't brush my hair sometimes. And I kept thinking if I lost the use of my hand—I used to put it to my lips to cool the pain."

"The pain's gone, dear. And your arm's going to get well," I said.

Betty's long gray-green eyes flashed me a quick, but intent glance. It made me realize how strangely our parts were reversed. Here was comforting, brave, self-reliant Betty as if she were a helpless little girl instead of the splendid woman she had always shown herself to be. But in spite of my consciousness of the almost nightmare queeriness of it all I knew this was my chance to score an important point, so I went on relentlessly.

"Betty, now that you see how well your arm is being taken care of, don't you see also how wrong it is to worry over the other things that have been—such stumbling blocks to you?"

"I try not to think, Anne. But it's hard lying here. And I know now I'm a coward, too—about pain. So that makes it seem all the worse my driving poor Atherton into the war by telling him what I'd do if I were a man. He didn't want to go—and he had to because he knew I'd despise him."

"Now listen, dear," I interrupted gravely. "Atherton Bryce died splendidly. You gave him a chance to go like a man—with his airplane for a funeral pyre. Not just drooping of sickness, dying miserably, rustling. You made him a hero—that's what you did for him!"

"You think that, Anne? really?"

"I know it, Betty B. There's a man you were square with. And I know how square you can be with—some people."

"Are you scolding, Anne? I'm sick, you know. Scolding from you hurts."

"Yes, I'm scolding, dear. You can be square. You were square with the man who is dead."

"And you think I'm not—with Terry?" whispered Betty, burrowing her flushing cheek in my shoulder.

"Not with Terry. Not with Betty," I replied.

"How do you mean, Anne?"

"Why, dear, you love Terry. And you aren't brave enough to risk life again. You're living in a gray ghost world of pain and remembering. And Terry's out in what ought to be sunlight, but what is all darkness, because he's so lonely for you."

"Oh, Anne—don't—don't! I can't bear it! I told you once that I always hurt the people I love—that friendship was the best. Ever since I saw Terry tumble down that hill in No Man's Land with shell and flame back of him, I've felt as if I'd seen my poor Atherton falling—falling in his flaming car. It was an omen."

"Well, if it was an omen," I ventured darily, "I can only interpret it to mean that Terry was saved for you—and the other, not being meant for you, had to go. Betty, omens are silly—stupid. It's all so long ago, can't you forget and start over?"

"No! I've tried . . ."

"Tried! Betty, you're a selfish woman after all. You aren't big enough and brave enough to ask your friends for help, because you'd rather play Lady Bountiful. It wasn't remembering Atherton that kept you from Terry. It was being stupid and proud and afraid about your arm."

"Anne!"

"Yes," I went on pitilessly. "But you play Lady Bountiful to every one except the man who loves you so tenderly, so—gloriously that you owe him everything. You let Terry starve in the dark, because you aren't brave enough to take what you want. Your arm's going to be well now. But if it weren't, don't you know how Terry would love taking care of you?"

"Anne! Anne—you hurt!"

"I know, dear—but it's true; all true."

"I held her close and said no more. A little clock ticked in the silence and a window curtain rustled against the sill."

"Anne," whispered a meek little voice at last, "you might get Miss Moss and take her for a walk—and tell Terry I'm alone. But would you mind powdering my nose first? I think I've been—crying a little."

To Be Continued.

"Anne!"

"Yes," I went on pitilessly. "But you play Lady Bountiful to every one except the man who loves you so tenderly, so—gloriously that you owe him everything. You let Terry starve in the dark, because you aren't brave enough to take what you want. Your arm's going to be well now. But if it weren't, don't you know how Terry would love taking care of you?"

Physicians Recommend Castoria

YOU know the real human doctors right around in your neighborhood: the doctors made of flesh and blood just like you: the doctors with souls and hearts: those men who are responding to your call in the dead of night as readily as in the broad daylight; they are ready to tell you the good that Fletcher's Castoria has done, is doing and will do, from their experience and their love for children.

Fletcher's Castoria is nothing new. We are not asking you to try an experiment. We just want to impress upon you the importance of buying Fletcher's.

Your physician will tell you this, as he knows there are a number of imitations on the market, and he is particularly interested in the welfare of your baby.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Do the People Know?

Do you know why you are asked to call for Fletcher's Castoria when you want a child's remedy: why you must insist on Fletcher's? For years we have been explaining how the popularity of Fletcher's Castoria has brought out innumerable imitations, substitutes and counterfeits.

To protect the babies: to shield the homes and in defense of generations to come we appeal to the better judgment of parents to insist on having Fletcher's Castoria when in need of a child's medicine. And remember above all things that a child's medicine is made for children—a medicine prepared for grown-ups is not interchangeable. A baby's food for a baby. And a baby's medicine is just as essential for the baby.

The Castoria Recipe (it's on every wrapper) has been prepared by the same hands in the same manner for so many years that the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and perfection in the product are synonymous.

If Burleigh A. Grimes, who is one of Uncle Robbie's pitching aces, were to be employed strictly on piecework instead of laboring for a fixed sum the end of the season would probably find him about the highest priced twirler of the 1919 campaign. Judging by the way he has started off this year he is out to claim the title of Iron Man that Jack Coombs discarded when he became manager of the Phillies.

Iron Man Grimes' part in five games this year shows his endurance. The contest in which he did the most work does not appear in the standing of the clubs. It was a twenty inning game and the Phillies were his opponents. In his first five games he started and won three battles that were confined to the regulation route of nine frames and finished one game. The contest into which he was thrown as a relief hurler was against the Giants. He pitched three innings and was charged with the defeat.

In these games he pitched fifty innings, was found for a total of thirty-nine hits, and the total number of runs scored by the opposition was twenty. Eighteen of these twenty tallies were crowded into two battles, one being the long tie affair in which the Phillies scored five times, and the other half of the eighteen were scored by the same club the next time Grimes faced them. Burleigh, however, did not lose the game as Uncle Robbie's crew hit vigorously and scored two tallies more than the Phillies.

The hardwork Burleigh is always ready to answer a call from the round leader, and he is strong enough to pitch every third day if necessary. While pitching Burleigh has the happy habit of growing stronger as the contest goes along. For instance, in the long tie game he allowed eleven hits in the first nine frames and then suddenly tightened up and pitched eight consecutive rounds without allowing a single hit to be registered off his curves. When he hung up his first shutout victory of the year and five singles were made off him, four of them being recorded before the fourth inning was played.

Last season Grimes was also an untiring laborer, taking part in forty games, and only two other hurlers in the league pitched more innings than he did. Vaughn twirled 239 rounds and Cooper pitched 273. Grimes worked three innings less than the Pirates southpaw.

BALL TEAM PLAYS HERE THREE DAYS

Friday, Decoration Day, the Independents will stage the first of a three game series with the Rockport Maroons, reputed to be one of the fastest semi-pro teams in northern Illinois. The second contest will be played Saturday afternoon and the third Sunday.

Manager Halleran received telegraphic advices from Ray Costello to the effect that he would be here for the three games and might come to terms with the Independents for the remainder of the season. Costello played here for two seasons with the hat to take up the Springfield rod for the U. S.

Since his return from the service Costello has been playing with the Norwoods of Cincinnati. He will hold down the center garden for Lima and states that he is in fine fettle. His addition to the line-up should aid the Independents materially in coming out on the long end of the count. The remainder of the club personnel will be the same as last Sunday with Nom-de-plume Pierce on the mound.

The Rockport nine comes to Lima with a reputation of being a fast team and representative of the city which has a population of 75,000 persons. They travel thru Iowa, Michigan, Kentucky and Illinois and average about 7,500 miles a season, this being their first trip into Ohio.

The grounds are getting a good workout this week and should be in good shape by Friday. Fogarty will umpire.

Mike O'Leary, the young 135 pounder who is in training in Lima, and who gives promise of being one of the fastest lightweights in the country, will have a chance to prove his mettle on June 11th.

On that date he fights Harry McHenry at Wapakoneta, and the bout should be one of the best seen in this part of the country. McHenry has fought some of the big ones, Kilbane, Roger O'Malley, and others. Tony Zill didn't get his gloves on McHenry in ten rounds at Fort Wayne some weeks ago and Mac has had lots of experience.

O'Leary is faithfully training, and has not the slightest doubt but that he will drop McHenry. Walter Perry is coaching the young battler, and reports that he is in almost perfect condition.

The show will be given in Brown's Opera House, and many Lima fans will go over to see the boys clash. Some fast preliminary bouts have been scheduled to precede the main event.

Tuesday's hero—Cactus Cravath. The veteran's home run clout, with two on, won for the Phillies 4 to 1, over the Reds.

Hub Leonard allowed the Athletics five hits, winning his first start from the Tigers, 3 to 1.

Bob Shawker made a journey to the Browns slaughter pen, losing before he could be derelicted, 5 to 3.

Tom Phillips, rookie, made the Red Sox do tricks, and the Indians again smashed the champions, 6 to 4.

Eddie Cicotte goes on and on. He won again, the Senators expiring 4 to 3.

Bill Doak took the measure of the Robins, by 4 to 1.

The Giants made it a field day over the Pirates, 10 to 2 being the final.

George Stallings announced the scale of a couple of outfielders and the Braves said goodbye by losing 5 to 0.

THE LIMA DAILY NEWS—SPORT PAGE CUBAN CATCHER IS A REAL STAR

By N. E. BROWN

Miguel Gonzales, better known as "Mike," looms up as one of the greatest, if not the foremost player that Cuba has sent into the great American game. He acquired this enviable rep while backstopping for one of the joke clubs of the game—the St. Louis Cardinals—which is saying something for the illustrious "Mike." Now that he has been obtained by the Giants, who loom up as the best outfit in the old circuit, he ought to climb still higher on the treacherous but not overcrowded ladder of diamond fame.

Gonzales said howdy-do to big league base in 1913, when he was signed by the Cincinnati Reds. Mike did not attract much attention that season, partly because of the fact that the Reds weren't attracting any. The next season, however, he caught eighty-three games in good style. At the close of 1914 he was sent to the Cardinals in a trade.

He was behind the bat in thirty-two games in 1915.

The next year he caught ninety-three.

In 1917 he was on the receiving end in sixty-eight.

Last year he caught an event hundred. In addition to these one hundred he played first base in eighteen games.

Mike's batting average never has scared Cobb and Speaker, but he gets busy at critical times in the game and makes most of his hits count. He has a wonderful pegging arm and knows how to use it.

Gonzales is of the type of player McGraw likes. The Cuban is aggressive and full of pep. The change from a losing to a winning club may add more dash to Mike's play and make him a bigger star than ever.

FIRE ON PROWLERS
WAPAKONETA — Early night prowlers who had entered the home of Henry Vossler, north of here, were frightened away when a son of the family returned unexpectedly and fired several shots at the fleeing men. Two were seen to make their getaway in an automobile standing nearby.

Ringside Flashes

Stanley McBride, Chicago scrapper in the 125 pound class, has been matched against Frankie Callahan, for an 8 round battle in Milwaukee, June 5.

Jimmy Hill, featherweight champion of Australia, arrived in San Francisco Monday. He will remain in this country as long as he can find matches.

The championship of Great Britain and the Lonsdale belt was won Monday by Frank Goddard, who stopped Jack Curphey in the tenth of their 20 round contest, staged in London.

Monday's ring events showed the following decisions: Philadelphia: Eddie O'Keefe beat Phil Lundy in 6 rounds; Parsev Johnson and Billy Evans drew, 6 rounds; Frankie Conifrey stopped Johnny Mealey; Packey Hommey beat Frankie Clark.

Representative Dunn of Wood county has started a bill in the Ohio Legislature which is aimed to kill the boxing game in Ohio, particularly the big fight at Toledo July 4th. Efforts to pass the bill as an emergency measure have been blocked and unless it can be carried in that manner it would be 90 days before it would become effective if it was passed. By that time the big show would be over.

A tankful of Red Crown Gasoline makes the car fairly radiate power. It's because Red Crown is clean, gingery gas whose only function is to propel—to make most mileage. Does it without leaving carbon to cripple engine action and hasten repairs. Costs no more but does more. Uniform everywhere you get it.

Polarine lubricates as well as Red Crown propels—keeps gas from shipping past piston rings and cylinder walls—delivers it all to rear wheels as driving power. Practically non-carbonizing.

Polarine Cup Greases and Transmission Lubricants are best for bearings.

All at the Red Crown Sign—Service Stations and Garages.

LIMA HOMES NOW IN GREAT DEMAND

Much Building Being Done on West Side—Houses Sold Before Finished

"This is the open season for house building," says I. W. Green, prominent real estate dealer, who reports the business is particularly active. Green is building three large new houses in the west section of town, one on Elm street, near Charles, and two on Charles, near Elm. The real-estate houses are to be two-story, substantial homes, one of brick, one stucco, and one frame. This section is building up more rapidly than any other residential district, and all the homes are of good class, and none are vacant, being purchased, even before they are finished. Harold Smith is interested with Green in the construction of these homes.

Dr. C. A. Black, whose offices are in the Masonic block, has just purchased the former home of H. C. Hammack, president of the Franklin Type and Printing company, 819 State street, thru Green.

"It is evidence conclusive," said Green, "of the reliability of the financial status when people are willing to pay for good homes, and I predict a volume of business and building unprecedented."

AUTHORITIES OF FINDLAY BELIEVE MAN WANTED HERE

Lima police received word Wednesday morning from Findlay authorities to be on the look out for a man by the name of Ed. Warmick who in the last few days has caused much trouble for the Findlay police. Warmick was being held in the county jail on a charge of grand larceny pending action of the grand jury there. Tuesday night some time he made his escape.

Reports have been received that he was later seen to board one of a number of new automobiles which were headed for Lima. A few days ago Warmick attempted to take poison to kill himself and later tried to dash his brains out against the prison walls. Having failed in both these attempts to commit suicide Warmick made an attempt to burn the jail. This effort also failed.

A description was given the local police.

Gossip of the Movies

Doug Fairbanks and Charlie Chaplin have been taking a little vacation and cutting up something terrible, so they say, witness the photograph, but soon they must get to work.

DIVORCE GRANTED

Three Couples Separated By Decrees of Court

A divorce was granted Edward Watkins, 65, 846 west Wayne street, by Judge Blanchely, in common pleas court, Tuesday from Martha A. Watkins. Alimony of $2000 was awarded the defendant payable within thirty days. Costs are assessed the plaintiff.

Judge Blanchely has had the case under advisement and rendered his decision yesterday on grounds of gross neglect of duty.

Sensational hearing of the case on April 11 and 12 which was congested was filled with lively testimony.

Mabel H. Crossman was granted a divorce on the grounds of gross neglect of duty from Darwin Crossman. She was awarded the custody of their seven-year-old daughter.

W. A. Miller, Bath township, who sought separation from his wife, Mabel E. Miller, on grounds of extreme cruelty was granted a divorce by Judge Blanchely in common pleas court Tuesday afternoon. He must pay her $500 alimony and $1 per week for each of two children, both daughters, aged two and eight years.

JEWISH CONGREGATION TO OBSERVE FEAST OF WEEKS

Shabouth, the Jewish Feast of Weeks, falls this year on Wednesday, June 12th. Originally it was a festival of the first fruit. In Biblical times it was but a holiday of farmers at the end of the first seven weeks of harvest. Its offering was the simple agriculture brought as a thanksgiving for the new crops they have gathered.

Owing to an established custom in the Lima Temple confirmation service will be held Sunday instead of the regular day of Pentecost, however there will be services for the holy day on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Rabbi Steiner will preach.

The following members are to be confirmed Sunday, June 1 at 2:30 o'clock: Simon J. Blatner, Morris H. Kaplan, Bernice M. Rosenbaum, Anna E. Katchka, Thel Lotzoff, Sylvia Wise, Robert A. Wis. of Bluffton. To this class belong Mildred Lillenthal, of Chicago and Edgar Levy, of Cleveland Maxine Bernstein and Jane Mathews will lead the processional march of the confirmands.

EVANS AND THOMAS HAS AN OFFICE AT 308 NORTH MAIN ST. WITH WERNER AND WINKLER. PHONE MAIN 5367. WILL MAKE LATER ANNOUNCEMENTS.

SOME TEAM

Tom Moore, being a baseball enthusiast recently organized a baseball team out in Culver City. It is named "The Star Goldwyn Nine" and contains the following well known actors: Norbert Lusk, Thomas Buchanan, John Bowers, Milton Sills, Edwin Sturges, Phineas Witherpoon, Joseph Cohen and Owen Moore. Tom Moore is shortstop.

MRS. DREW TO STAR ALONE

"Squared," the next film in which Mrs. Drew and the late Sidney Drew appear, is said to be quite different from previous offerings. Polly and Henry are not married nor do they get married in the picture. In fact, they are not even engaged. Not only is this film different in that Henry and Polly are not man and wife, but also it is a diversion because it is not written around the home and domestic life of these two leads.

Following the release of "Squared."

ed, two comedies in which Mrs. Drew will star alone, will be presented. They are "Bunkered," a golf story, and "Night of the Dub," another highly amusing two-reeler. In both of these stories Mr. Drew had a hand in the writing.

Will Rogers, the Goldwyn star, has just completed arrangements for the publication of a series of books. The first of the series deals with the peace conference, and here are a few excerpts from the gaily proofs, which show that Will Rogers is as good with a pen as he is with the lariat. His humor is the same keen, apparently spontaneous effort in print that it is behind the footlights.

"Of course, this whole peace conference talk started from the time President Wilson said to Germany: 'We won't deal with you as long as you occupy invaded territory.' Well, the kaiser came right back at him and said: 'If you can show us how we can give it up any faster than we are I wish you would do it.'"

"The shorter white paper gets the more careless these pen hounds get with it."

"Grammar and I get along like a Russian and a bath tub."

"I was going to write a book on the war, but I heard some fellow had already done it."

"There are so many books on the war that no two people will have to read the same book."

"The thing that hurt the kaiser worse than losing the war was that in all the armistice terms they didn't even mention his name."

"Everybody commenced talking about the peace conference and who was to go. Some Republican senators went so far as to engage a lower bell."

"There was so much argument about who was to go that President Wilson says, 'I tell you what, we will split 50-50; I will go and you fellows can stay.'"

FOOTLIGHTS RECLAIM ELSIE

It is announced that, although Elsie Ferguson will not, as reported, appear on the stage in "Montmartre," she has found a play to her liking and will be seen on Broadway in it. She will, not, however, abandon her screen schedule of eight Arctur pictures a year.

SHE'LL BE LONESOME

Peggy Aarup is to be the only woman in the company headed by Eddie Polo which is to make a tour of the world. The group, including Director J. P. MacGowan, left Los Angeles on May 4. After spending three days at a rodeo in the wilds of Arizona they left for New York City, where a twenty-one-day vacation will be enjoyed by all before setting sail for Ireland, the first stopping place on the other side.

How do you like it? Isn't it the niftiest little car you ever saw?

"I never thought I'd own one so good. My boy is responsible for it. He learned a lot in school about War Savings Stamps and he sold them to every one he knew; of course, Dad came in for a share; but I let half the year get away before I woke up to their advantages."

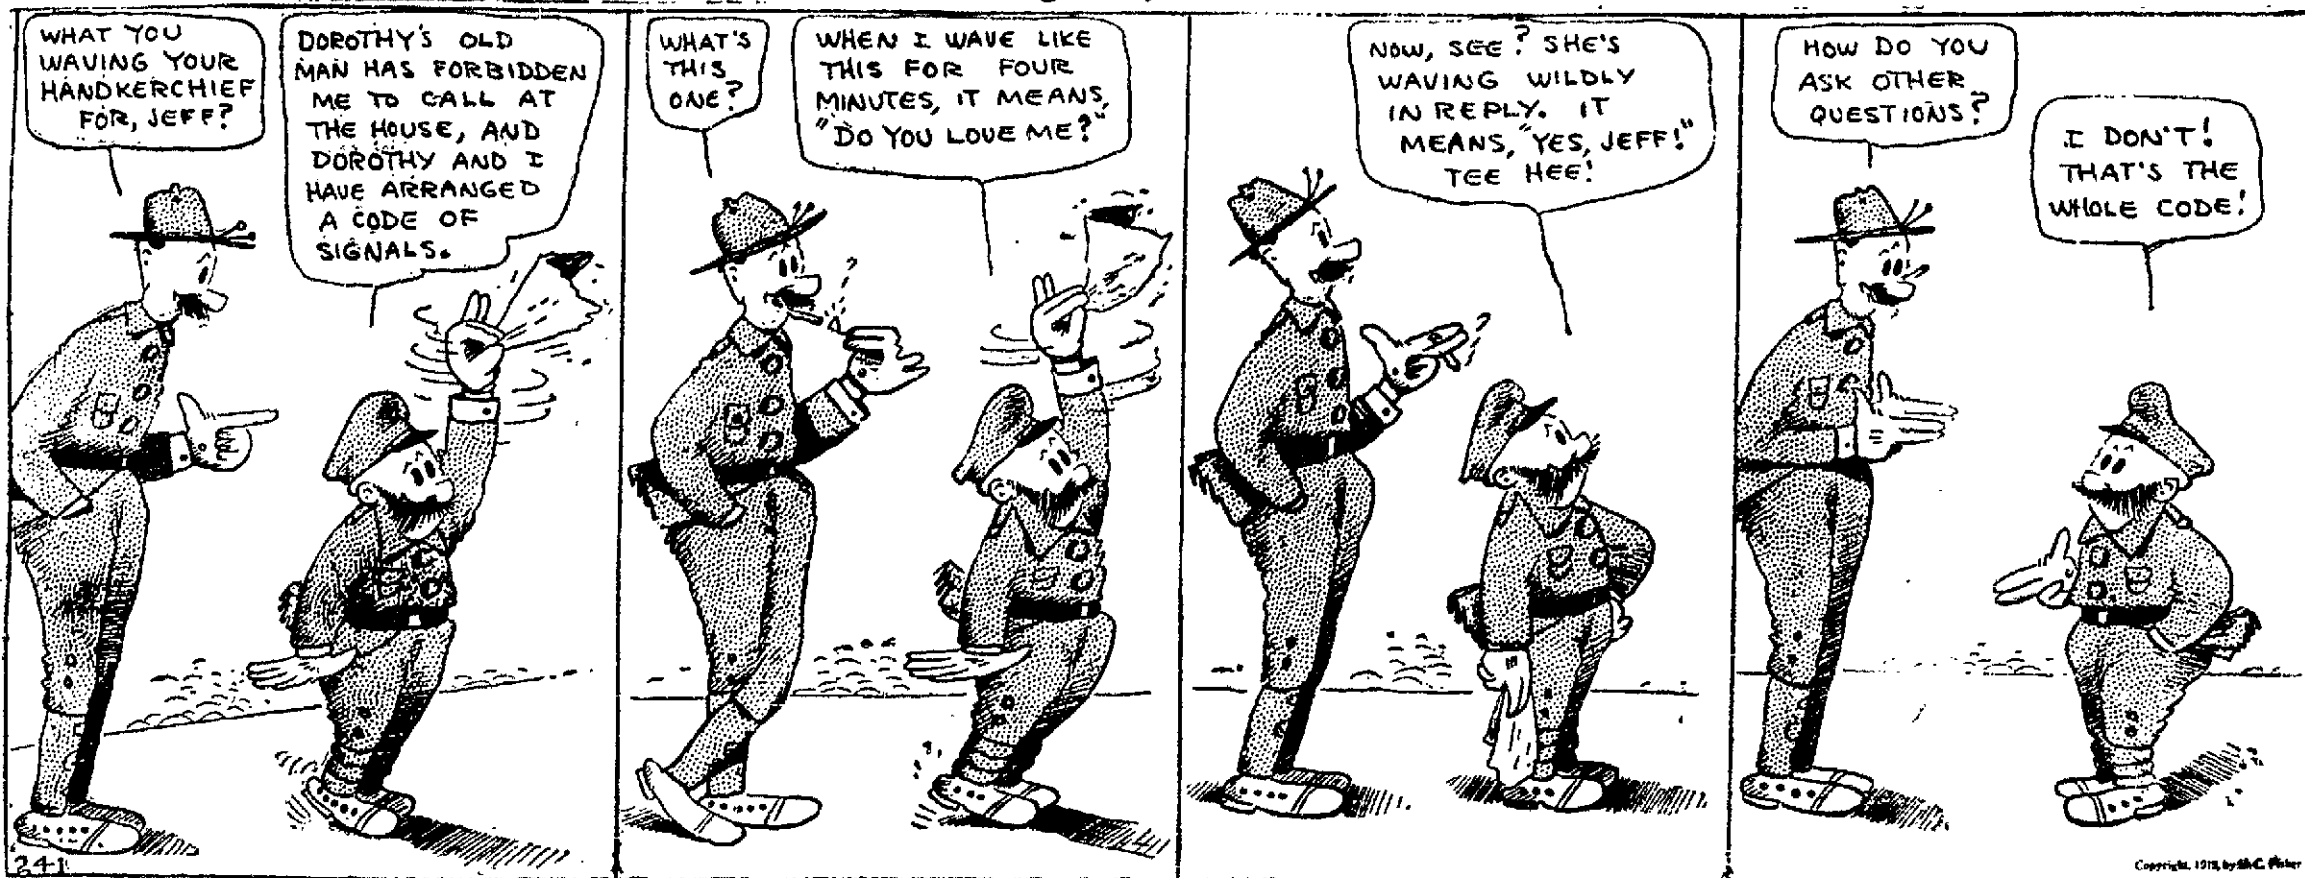

"Then I saw that the purchases I had made to please him represented a tidy little sum; and I hadn't missed the money. So I bought more—right up to the limit."

"When I saw there was money to buy a car, I just laid back and let the interest pile up. It got to be enough to get the one I wanted—and here it is. Wife and boy are getting as much out of it as I do, too. It's a War Savings Car."

Many a man can say that in 1924 if he will buy War Savings Stamps now.

Short Shavings

The ball had gone over the fence, as balls will in suburban gardens, and a small but unabashed batsman appeared at the front door to ask for it.

Then appeared an irate father. "How dare you show yourself at my house? Do you know you nearly killed one of my children with it?" "But you've got ten children," said the logical lad, "and I've only got one baseball."

An American Red Cross nurse serving in a French hospital where American wounded had been sent was approached by a couple of French nurses much excited.

"Come quickly! An American boy has something the matter with his leg. Every time we move it he says something, and we cannot understand!"

When the nurse arrived at the bedside of the American there were a couple of orderlies, several more French nurses and a convalescent patient or two all trying to do something to his leg which was in a cast. "What's the matter with it?" asked the nurse.

"Nothing," he said. "For the love

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Lima People

One kidney remedy has known merit.

Lima people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills.

Lima testimony proves it reliable.

A. J. Roth, machinist, 640 South Union street, says: "My kidneys were out of order and my back ached like a toothache. I couldn't lift much of anything because when I did I got a stitch in my back and sometimes had to lay off work for three or four days. Some days my kidneys acted too often and the secretions were scanty and burning. Mornings I was as stiff and lame when I got up I could hardly get around. I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, heard about Doan's and I got some and started using them. I soon got relief and after I had taken three boxes of Doan's my kidneys acted naturally and my back was as strong as could be."

HAD PIMPLES FOR FOUR YEARS

On Face, Arms, Chest and Back. Itched and Burned. Cuticura Heals.

"I was bothered with pimples that broke out on my face and went to my arms, chest and back. They were large, red, and hard, and they festered. They itched, burned and hurt, and I scratched most all the time."

"They bothered me for four years. Then I sent for a sample of Cuticura. I bought more, and now my face is healed." (Signed) Miss Lakota Mayo, Hendrickson, Mo.

It is easier to prevent skin troubles than to heal them. Clear the pores and keep them clear by using Cuticura Soap for every-day toilet purposes with touches of Ointment as needed to little skin troubles.

Don't fail to test the famous fragrance of Cuticura Toiletum, an exquisitely scented face and skin perfume powder, 25c, every where.

BELL'S
FOR INDIGESTION

of Mike, call them off! I'm trying to tell them it's comfortable."

Returning with his groom from the inspection of a horse which he decided not to buy, a country doctor said:

THINK A MINUTE

WHAT is your doctor's first question? Why does he suspect constipation?

Because 90% of his patients are suffering from ailments caused directly or indirectly by the action of poisons formed in a sluggish intestinal tract.

These body poisons are absorbed by the blood and carried all over the body until the weakest organ, unable to withstand the poisonous contact, becomes infected and refuses to act properly. Unfortunately it is usually not until then that the doctor is consulted and asked to treat the diseased organ.

The surest way of purifying the blood and preventing the formation of these destructive body poisons is to prevent stagnation of food waste in the intestinal tract—to prevent constipation.

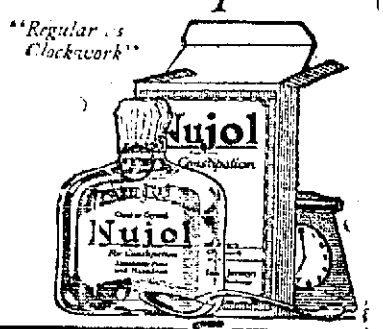

Constipation is not a matter to be taken lightly or neglected. Nor is it either sufficient or safe to take castor oil, pills, salts, mineral waters, etc., in order to "force" bowels action. Such action does not cure constipation, it makes constipation a habit.

Nujol is entirely different from drugs as it does not force or irritate the bowels. Nujol prevents stagnation by softening the food waste and encouraging the intestinal muscles to act naturally, thus removing the cause of constipation and self-poisoning. It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

Warning: Nujol is sold in sealed Nujol Trade Mark bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. All druggists. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.

Nujol
For Constipation

"Ah, Thomas, that man tried to take me in; I'm not such a fool as I look, eh?" "No, sir, that you are not," came the hearty response. Meeting a strange look from the doctor, Thomas felt perhaps he had put it a bit awkwardly, so touching his hat, he added:

"Beg pardon, sir, I mean you hadn't need to be."

Capes Will Take To Wings In a Great Sale Where Only Two Prices Prevail

The inauguration of this unlooked-for sale of Capes will bring joy to the hearts of Women and Misses who have harbored a strong desire for this popular garment in such great vogue.

This does not mean, by any degree, that a few capes have been singled out from the better ones—and marked low to get rid of them.

It means that every single cape in the Ready-to-wear parlors has been placed in the same category—"subject to reduction"—and the entire group can now be found with just two prices on them.

Some of These Bewitching Affairs Go for Half

In material, one may choose to their heart's content from serges, gaberdines, Poirer Twills, Velours and plaids.

Shades of navy, brown, tan, grey, mustard and checks of black and white.

Many of them are handsomely lined with gorgeous, colorful silk.

And remember—every cape in the house is now priced at either one of the two prices in the large figures immediately below.

Friday--Fly the Flag That Broke Eternal Peace

The American Flag is synonymous with VICTORY the entire world over.

Let us show our love for the good old stars and stripes by flying them liberally and lovingly Friday—Decoration Day.

Ail-wool double warp construction flags with stars sewed on both sides—3x5 at $4.25, 4x6 at $6.00, 4x7 at $7.00, 4x8 at $8.00, 5x8 at $9.25, 6x10 at $13.00 and 8x12 at $22.50.

Cotton Bunting flags greatly resembling in appearance those of wool with sewed on and embroidered stars—3x5 at $2.50, 4x6 at $3.25, 4x7 at $3.50, 4x8 at $3.75, 5x8 at $4.50, 6x10 at $6.00 and 8x12 at $9.00.

New muslin flags, while lower in prices, are still remarkably handsome. Stars and stars are sewed on both sides—3x5 at $2.15, 4x6 at $2.75, 4x7 at $3.00, 4x8 at $3.25, 5x8 at $3.75, 6x10 at $5.00 and 8x12 at $7.00.

BASEMENT

Great Savings On Fine Spring Suits

Women who are really "suit-hungry" will find most enjoyable choosing from among a good sized group of suits all marked with the same low figure.

For the most part the material is serge and the color blue—which, after all, is the one really serviceable rain-or-shine shade.

For those folk, old or young, who are in need of a garment of this description, this should prove an unusual and appealing selection. All were formerly much higher in price.
